No food or drinks beyond water will be allowed on the bus, Pass-A-Grille has wonderful beach concessions. Vaccination is recommended AND preferred.

Trip Description: Pass-A-Grille is at the southern end of St Pete Beach in Pinellas County. It includes the Eighth Avenue Historic Shopping District, restaurants and beach activities. The beachfront Paradise Grill is a praised concession stand. The Hurricane Restaurant across the street has a commanding view from a rooftop deck along with the popular Brass Monkey next door. There is a Shell Key Shuttle to Shell Key which is described as a shell hunter's paradise. A fishing pole can be rented at Merry Pier to fish from the pier. A speedboat can be rented from Speedboat Adventures. Due to Covid it is possible that services and availabilities have changed. Please contact the businesses directly for information.

The beach amenities include: Concession stand at Paradise Grill. We have not been able to confirm if Chairs/Umbrellas are available for rental. Everyone should plan on bringing a chair. I will notify you if we get rentals confirmation. NO LIFEGUARD, please be careful.

As always on an NBBC trip; you will be on your own for the afternoon. You can enjoy the beach, shopping, restaurants. Please make sure if you leave the beach to return in time for bus departure.
