TRIP DESCRIPTION: Lido Key is a barrier island on the gulf coast connected to mainland Sarasota by the John Ringling Causeway. It boasts a pristine white sandy beach with aquamarine waters. It is an alcohol friendly beach. No glass permitted. Following our beach day, we will be stopping at St Armands Circle located just ½ mile from Lido Key. It has midcentury architecture with a European flair and boasts many chic upscale boutiques, fine dining and outdoor snack bars.

AMENITIES: Restrooms, outdoor showers, gift shop, shaded picnic tables, umbrella/chair rentals. There are year-round lifeguards. The Lido Island Grille offers sandwiches, burgers, salads, and seafood in addition to alcoholic beverages. They do accept credit cards.

RENTALS: Umbrella and chair rentals available (umbrellas $15 and chairs $12 each) Cash Only. Can call (941)444-7495 to reserve ahead of time.
